

The Tahoe Cooking Queens

Winter Cooking Classes

☞ Crock Pot Cookery: Fun to say and easy to use, the crock pot, or slow cooker, is one of the essential appliances for the busy cook. Learn some fabulous crock pot recipes that will warm your cockles and inspire you to get back into the kitchen and to inspire healthy (and happier) cooking.

- Thursday, January 28, 2010 DATE CHANGE

☞ All About Chocolate: Just in time to celebrate with your valentine - indulge your fantasies with easy to make, yet fantastically sinful (and easy), chocolate delicacies guaranteed to get results! (hands-on)

- Thursday, February 11, 2010

☞ Hearty Soups & Stews: Soups and stews are the perfect meal. Not only do soups and stews make a rib - sticking dinner, they stretch a long way. Serve with a warm, crusty loaf of bread and you would think you were a step closer to heaven. (hands-on)

- Thursday, March 4, 2010

☞ Something is Fishy: You will have solid fish skills after this class with methods you can use for a variety of our finned favorites. Learn four classic techniques - pan-frying, baking, sauté and braising - to create perfect fish dishes every time. (hands-on)

- March, TBD

☞ Chef's Table ☞

It's a beautiful night to venture out - just because! Brave the cold by coming along on our culinary adventure; you will be rewarded with a menu that's delicious and easy - with plentiful conversation served on the side. Plan to experience and enjoy as we (together) make a delicious, full 3-course dinner, served with wine, for your dining delight!

- Saturday, March 13, 2010

- 6pm - 8pm

- $50/person

We'll make...

- Fried Mozzarella with Arugula and Prosciutto
- Romana Pork Loin
- pasta with walnut pesto
- Apple Crisp with Vanilla Ice Cream
